

Federal judge again declares DACA program unlawful

September 14, 2023

The Forum is deeply disappointed in the federal court's recent decision declaring the DACA program unlawful. It is important to note that DACA renewals and Advance Parole remain open to current recipients. However, the program remains closed to new applicants.

For more than a decade, DACA has allowed nearly 600,000 immigrants to live and work without fear of deportation. Over 30,000 DACA recipients call Illinois their home. Today and always, we remain committed to working alongside immigrant youth and advocates to keep DACA alive and demand a more permanent pathway for a more permanent future.

Read the story:

Federal judge again declares DACA immigration program unlawful, but allows it to continue - CBS News

For information on how to renew your DACA:

How to Renew Your DACA in 2023 - Informed Immigrant